

SUMMARY

Cisco Network Support Engineer, providing Security strategies, Switch, Firewall and Router configuration ability in LAN, WAN, VPN and wireless environments. Candidate will be supporting an established customer base of mainly contract customers. The territory is mainly comprised of companies inside the 495 belt-way. HUB Technical Services is an authorized HP/Procurve, Cisco, Microsoft, Sonicwall reseller and service provider. Responsibilities include installation, configuration, troubleshooting Networks comprised of mainly Cisco or Procurve switches, Cisco PIX/ASA and Sonicwall firewalls. The Network Support Engineer will be supporting the sales team as well as implementing and supporting network solutions. A thorough understanding of Network infrastructure as it relates to WAN, LAN, VPN, EMAIL support is necessary. Other supported products or related third-party products or technologies are a plus. Great opportunity for a confident individual with excellent customer relations skills. Opportunity for advancement and additional training and certification.

(1) Hardware qualifications: Cisco CCNA or CCDA or Compaq/HP, APS, ASE, MASE or equivalent manufacturers' certification preferred.

(2) Networking and Systems: Strong knowledge and experience with TCP/IP, HTTP, LDAP, DNS, WAN architecture and planning and other protocols. Knowledge of systems; Understanding and practical experience with Microsoft networked environments a plus.

HUB TECH is a premier IT services company recognized by HP as an "Allstar" service provider and fastest growing reseller in New England. We offer a great team atmosphere together with an excellent benefit package.

Please email or FAX resume, (no phone calls please) career@hubtechnical.com or fax: 508-238-2923